SENIOR CLASS EDITORIAL . . .

This capable aggregation of earnest pursuers of learning, namely the class of 1955, disembarked at S. H. S.'s worthy portals under the most favorable circumstances.

After getting over the first thrill of actually being a part of the hustle and bustle of the high school we settled down to electing our class officers. We chose Aristide Bouchard as president, John Hanson vice-president, Patricia Quinn secretary, and Judy Wise treasurer. Representing us on the student council were Robert Bushey and Joanne Franck.

Mr. Thomas was elected our class advisor.

The Juniors tendered us a wonderful Sophomore reception and made us feel welcome and an actual part of the school.

We took part in many school activities, being well represented in all school sports and dramatics. Our cheering section included Virginia Gilman and Mary Laney. Many of our classmates went out for the band and chorus.

Yes—this had been a great year for us as Sophomores! We returned our Junior year feeling very much at home. As upperclassmen we knew the ropes and it was our turn to welcome the underclassmen.

Elections were held and the results were—all male!—Francis LaFratta president, Aristide Bouchard vice-president, John Hanson secretary, and Robert Bushey treasurer.

Representatives to the student council were Judy Wise, Joanne Franck, and Francis LaFratta. Our class advisor was Miss Reardon.

We had fun welcoming a fine group of Sophomores at a reception held at the high school gymnasium.

This year many of our boys really shone on the gridiron, in basketball, and in winter sports. Our girls racked up numerous points on the basketball team.

We were well represented in all the social activities of the school. Three more of our classmates made varsity cheerleading: Beverly Blaisdell, Charlene Dostie, and Priscilla LeBlanc.

Chosen for Girls State were Eldena Fowke, Virginia Gilman, and Glenda-Lou Rowell. For Boys State, Aristide Bouchard.

The biggest event of the Junior year is always the Junior Prom and ours was no exception. With stars twinkling overhead and the stage set for a roof garden scene we danced to the dreamy melodies of Oscar Brown and his Night Hawks. Judy Wise and Aristide Bouchard were chosen as Queen and King over the Prom. Their attendants were Eldena Fowke and Francis LaFratta.

September '54 found us back at S. H. S. with a new feeling of triumph at having reached the peak. Class officers were: Aristide Bouchard, president; Guy Bolduc, vice-president; Judy Wise, secretary; and Eldena Fowke, treasurer. Robert Bushey, John Hanson, and Everette LaPorte were representatives to the Student Council.

Mr. Gordon was chosen our class advisor.

This was our big year in football. Two of our greatest players, Francis LaFratta and Guy Bolduc were chosen as co-captains of the team.

Virginia Gilman was elected head cheerleader and Eldena Fowke, head majorette.

Reigning as Football King and Queen at the annual football dance were Charlene Dostie and Francis LaFratta.

The school Teepee Talk was published regularly during the year with Dawn Caouette and Patricia Kelley as co-editors.

Eldena Fowke was chosen by popular vote of the senior girls as the D. A. R. candidate.

Our LEVER Board was chosen with Dawn Caouette and Eldena Fowke as co-editors, with many others of the class serving on the Board.

Thanks to all performers, the Senior play, "Annie Get Your Gun", was a big success.

THE JUNIOR CLASS

Junior Class Editorial . . .

We, the class of '56, having our summer jobs, many friends and various activities, resumed our studies at S. H. S. as upperclassmen.

Our first major achievement was the election of class officers. As our president we chose Maurice Sirois; our vice-president, Diane Hilton; secretary, Theoline Leo, and treasurer, Christine Scott. Gail Halliday, Lawrence Adams, and James Easler were selected to represent our class on the student council. Miss Norma Collins accepted the role of our class advisor.

Football season saw many Junior boys participating in our foremost sport. At the annual football banquet Leon Worthley and Maurice Sirois were named co-captains for the ensuing year.

From our class, Gail Halliday and Emma Jane O'Neal joined the varsity cheerleading squad, Esther Goodness returning as a veteran. Theoline Leo became head cheerleader of the J. V.'s while Ruth Carpenter and Diane Wing became initial members. Being substitute majorettes last year, Patricia Barnes and Shirley Roux advanced to regular positions.

Altering the traditional "stunt night" of Sophomore Reception this year the program provided a skit contest to determine a king and queen of their class.

Both boys and girls gave their usual support to the basketball teams.

To add variety to our Junior year we adopted a new custom, that of Junior Prize Speaking. Placing first in the dramatic division was Gail Halliday and second was Mary Thompson. Emma O'Neal won first honors for the humorous selections with Dorothea Johnson taking second place. Richard Hall received honorable mention.

The musical organization and various school clubs were aided by many worthy participants from our Junior class.

As this year draws to its close, we, under the leadership of Miss Collins, have eagerly begun preparations for the annual Junior Prom.

Through the understanding and companionship of our principal, the teachers, our news friends the Sophomores together with the Seniors, we feel that we have attained the necessary knowledge and experience to fulfill our duties as Seniors next year.

This year has brought us to the final step toward our common goal — graduation. As this and the previous years have been successful, we are sure that our next will prove even more so to us, the class of '56.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

When we, the Sophomores, came to Skowhegan High, we began a year of new adventure. At first almost all of us were a little bewildered about finding our way around, but we soon overcame it with the help of the upperclassmen.

The year began with the choosing of new cheerleaders and majorettes. About fifteen Sophomore girls went out for cheering and from those fifteen, Jane Chasse and Margaret Laney were chosen. Three majorettes were also chosen from the Sophomore class: Donna Wallace and Deane Quirion with Mabel Dickinson as substitute.

A number of the Sophomores are members of the chorus, band, and orchestra.

Many boys from the Sophomore class eagerly participated in sports. Eight of them made the Jayvee football team and did very well for themselves. When basketball season arrived, five boys were picked for the Jayvee team, while Birchard Towle and Donald Young played varsity.

The girls were also interested in sports. Several of them are on the girls' Jayvee basketball team.

Elections for the class officers were held in November. The results were as follows: President, Birchard Towle; vice-president, Myra Clayton; secretary, Donald Young; treasurer, Jane Cates; student council, Margaret Laney and Jane Chasse. We chose Mr. Harris for our class advisor.

On November 12, the Juniors honored us with the traditional Sophomore Reception. It was different this year from previous receptions. Candidates for king and queen were selected from each of the four Sophomore classrooms. At the reception each room put on a short skit. The winners were Jane Cates from Miss Bishop's room and Fred Godin from Mr. Nadeau's room. The dance was very successful and we all had a wonderful time.

I think all the Sophomores will agree that '54 and '55 have held many well-remembered activities. Even though we had to work much harder, we will be rewarded in the end and come out on top as graduates of '57.

S. H. S. 1954 FOOTBALL SQUAD

FOOTBALL...

The opening of the 1954 season didn't look too promising with the loss of fifteen lettermen and just nine veterans on hand.

James Easler, end; Dick Hall, tackle, and Frannie LaFratta, fullback, were the only three of eleven starters on the offensive team of 1953 and were back for further duty. This left eight vacant positions to be filled.

The other six lettermen were: Guy Bolduc, Ronnie McGowan, both guards; Dick LaPointe, end; Don Castle, Dick Plourde, both halfbacks, and Aristide Bouchard, quarterback.

These boys had help from those boys that are the unsung heroes, many of whom received letters this year. The boys had a very successful season with only two losses and seven wins.

September 10, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 18 . . . Madison 0

Exhibition game with Madison. The game was played on the Bulldog's home field in a drizzle that lasted during the whole game. Neither team at the third period had scored until an Indian broke away and ran the field to a touchdown. From then on Skowhegan continued to score with two more touchdowns to win the game.

September 18, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 7 . . . Waterville 19

Another tough game. The Indians threatened goals four times but didn't quite make it. Brewer Raiders succeeded three touchdowns and extra points.

October 2, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 33 . . . Gardiner 13

Skowhegan, after two previous losses, buckled down to win the unbeaten Gardiner 33-13, thus breaking the so-called "jinx" on the Indians.

October 9, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 12 . . . Old Town 7

Skowhegan made a brave come-back by winning over the Old Town Indians 12-7 which evened the Indians' score with two wins and two losses.

October 15, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 24 . . . Winslow 13

The previously undefeated Winslow Raiders bowed to the Skowhegan Indians 24-13, thus toppling the Raiders from top of the class FF ratings.

October 23, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 39 . . . Lawrence 20

This time it was the Bulldogs of Lawrence that gave the Indians their fifth straight victory but not without a fight. Nine touchdowns were scored between the two teams.

October 29, 1954 . . .

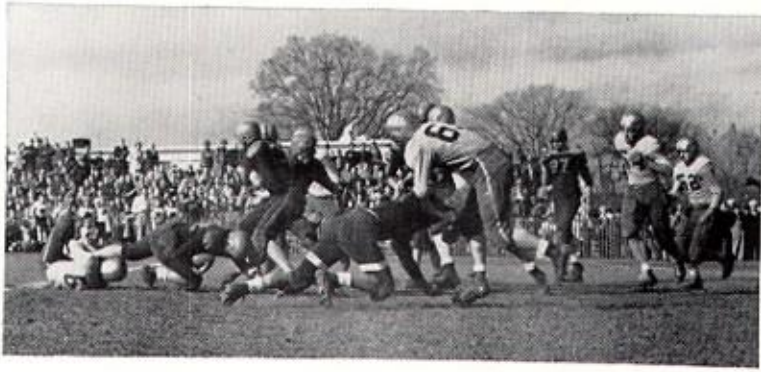

Skowhegan 26 . . . John Bapst 6

Skowhegan started the game with two T. D.'s in the first two minutes of the game with the John Bapst Crusaders. The game was fought despite the mud and rain. This win gave the Indians undisputed lead in the KVC.

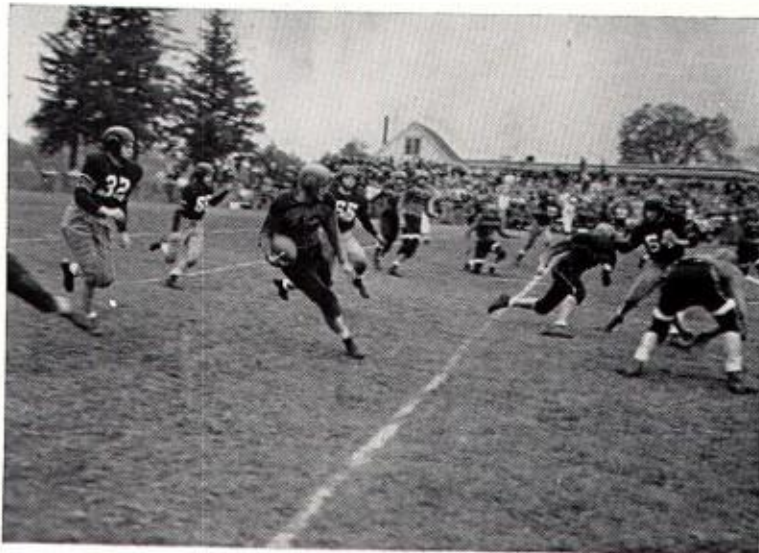

November 11, 1954 . . .

Skowhegan 28 . . . Madison 6

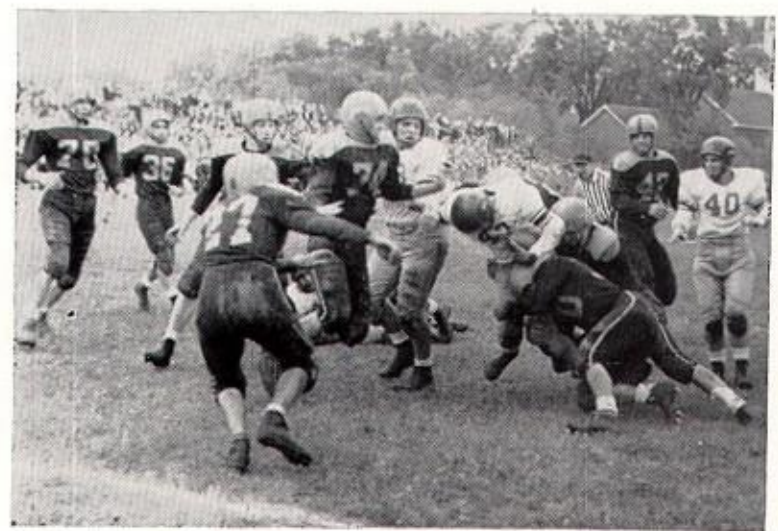

The traditional Armistice Day game was played on the Bulldog's home field with a show of very good sportsmanship for the rivals. This was not an easy win for the Indians for the Bulldogs fought for every inch they lost.

With the coming of snow and cold weather, Winter Sports are foremost in the minds of many of our schoolmates. They held meetings and conducted many practices. They elected Guy Bolduc and Francis LaFratta as captains. George Davis was manager, and his assistant was Ronald Franck. Members were: Seniors, G. Bolduc, F. LaFratta, R. LaPointe, R. Dube, and B. Lyons; Juniors, B. Tripp, M. Demo, R. Goodness, D. Boyle, L. Adams, R. Hall, C. Tracy, L. Worthley, L. Chase, and Wm. Currier; Sophomores, M. McLaughlin, and A. Casey; Junior High, L. Smith and B. Noonan.

Skowhegan won all three meets, at Monson, at Bingham, and at home. At the Skowhegan Winter Carnival, the girls and Junior boys also participated. We made a clean sweep, winning in all three classes. Guy Bolduc was high individual scorer at Monson and Bingham, and ran a close second at the Skowhegan meet. After the meet, a dance was held at which Guy Bolduc was king, and reigning beside him was Sandra Jones, chosen queen by popular vote from twelve other candidates. Mr. Thomas, Winter Sports coach, was very pleased with the completely successful season, and so were we!

Track . . .

TRACK . . . Left to Right: Coach Speed, N. Smith, F. LaFratta, J. Dunlop, C. Thibodeau.

The track schedule for the 1954 season included one indoor meet and five outdoor meets. They were the following:

Bowdoin Interscholastic . . .	Bowdoin
Winslow Meet	Winslow
Bangor Meet	Bangor
Bates Relays	Bates
K. V. Meet	Bowdoin
State of Maine Meet	Colby

We could term the results attained satisfactory, although the Skowhegan Track Team won no outstanding titles.

The first meet was held at Bowdoin. The Relay Team consisted of Dale Webb, Norman Smith, Charles Thibodeau, and Francis LaFratta. Skowhegan was edged out of the Winslow meet by one-third of a point.

Letter winners for the 1953 season were Ronald Bedard, Aristide Bouchard, Francis LaFratta, John Lancot, Everette LaPorte, Glendon Smith, Arthur Nelson, and Roger Conant, manager.

Veterans returning for the 1955 season were Aristide Bouchard, Francis LaFratta, John Lancot, Everette LaPorte, Glendon Smith, and Dale Webb. With six lettermen returning, the Indians are predicted to have a successful season.

The girls' varsity basketball squad was coached the first half of the year by Miss Theresa King. The Indians started playing basketball with only five veterans. But as the season and spirit of basketball got underway the girls progressed with every game. Mrs. Helen Bishop was the instructor for the second half of the season. Captain and also high scorer with 115 points was Violet Pinkham. Joyce James followed with 48. Close by was Angela Franck with 47 points.

Basketball Banquet . . .

To add the finishing touches to a basketball season, the girls had a well deserved banquet. Speeches were given by Coach Bishop and Captain Pinkham. Letters were awarded. The Seniors receiving bars and letters were: Violet Pinkham, Joyce James, Agnes Pooler, Eldena Fowke, Marlene Holt, Joan Laney, and Charlene Dostie.

G. A. A. . . .

This year the girls were again able to enjoy membership in the G. A. A. At the first meeting they chose their officers. They were as follows:

President	Judy Wise
Vice-President	Violet Pinkham
Secretary-Treasurer	Angela Franck
Advisor	Miss King

Around the first of December Mr. and Mrs. Watson played Santa by donating the use of their farmhouse to the girls for a clubhouse. The girls worked hard to fix it up. In order to raise money they baked cakes, pies, cookies, etc., and held a food sale at the Three G's. Mrs. Simpson was in charge of the sale. The girls were not too busy to wrap and send out gift packages at Christmas.

However, it was not all work and no play for them. During Christmas vacation a hay ride was enjoyed by all the members. The wagon was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Corson.

Special thanks are due Miss King for the outstanding work she did with this club.

BAND . . .

Under the guidance of our new band director, John McNamara, the band has been very successful. Extensive marching practice resulted in some outstanding performances during the football season.

As soon as the football season ended, the band started working on their concert program. The first concert was held at Bingham on March 17, and met with great success.

On April 6, a concert was held at the Skowhegan Municipal Auditorium.

The band performed at the Eastern Maine Music Festival which was held at Belfast.

Mr. McNamara should be commended on the excellent work he has done with the band.

CHORUS . . .

Under the supervision of a new director, Miss Christina Cefalo, the chorus has done much towards the promotion of interest in the music department. We feel that we may point to the S. H. S. chorus with pride for the work they have done this year.

On March 17 the chorus had their first concert in Bingham.

On April 29 a semi-formal dance was sponsored by the chorus in the gym. All proceeds went toward the chorus robes.

In order to secure money for the tickets a food sale was held in the gym.

On April 6, the chorus performed at the Municipal building. The girls wore evening gowns, and the boys dinner jackets.

The chorus sang at the Eastern Maine Music Festival in May.

Miss Cefalo deserves much credit in the work she has done with this group.

— KATHLEEN SARGENT,

ORCHESTRA . . .

The first orchestra rehearsal was called by Mr. McNamara a few weeks after school opened.

With spirits high began the plucking of strings and rolling of drums.

We accepted an invitation to play at the annual Christmas meeting of the P.T.A. at North Elementary School.

John Akeley, Deane Clark, and Glenda Lou Rowell represented the orchestra at K. V. with concerts at Madison, Waterville, and Gardiner.

With the New Year underway and spring around the corner, the orchestra started planning for the annual spring concert, which was April 6. The selections were Mexicana, Parade of the Wooden Soldiers, Entrance and the March of the Peers, and Echoes from the Grand Opera.

As has been the custom for the past few years, a few members from each organization are selected to play in the All-State Music Festival for four days. This year the host city was South Portland. Those selected were Martha Bernard, Glenda Lou Rowell, and Mary Thompson. The All-State Orchestra was composed of 85 members with Dr. Paul White of Eastman as the guest conductor.

The orchestra will play one night at graduation this year.

We, the members of the orchestra, wish to thank Mr. McNamara for all he has done in helping us make this year a success.

Senior Bowl Game . . .

On a very wet and muddy Wednesday afternoon on the 27th of October the annual Senior Bowl Game was held. Despite the bad weather and a flooded football field, there was a good turnout. After a mad scramble of mud and men, the underclassmen emerged victorious.

That evening the "Miss Skowhegan" contest was held, the defeated team being the contestants.

The evening started successfully, and a large crowd attended the gay affair. Fourteen lovely "ladies" were escorted to the stage by young lads to enter the battle for the '54 crown. Having been introduced, they proceeded to exhibit their hilarious talents.

The parents of the "beauties" were judges. Their choice was Richard Plourde. Miss Norma Lee Collins crowned the girl and Miss Skowhegan of 1953 (Herb Libby) solemnly kissed the new queen. A dance followed and music was furnished by the juke box. Coach Speed was the master of ceremonies.

F. H. A. . . .

We are very proud of the way our F. H. A. Chapter has risen to such an active organization during the last year.

We have had many special meetings including installation of officers and initiation of the new members. We sent Christmas boxes overseas, sponsored a Dog Patch dance, sold cup cakes several times at school, and established a twenty-dollar scholarship which will be given to some deserving girl in F. H. A. to be used for higher education in Home Economics. We hope that these special activities will be made a traditional act.

To conclude our year's work, on April 30 we all went to Augusta to the State F. H. A. Convention.

Miss Collins deserves much praise for the extra work she did for our group and for the way she has kept us working for higher goals.

Senior Play . . .

The Senior class play, "Annie Get Your Gun", was presented at the Municipal Auditorium on March 31 before a full house. It was directed by Mrs. Helen Bishop of the high school faculty.

The parts were as follows: Annie, Charlene Dostie; Frank, Aristide Bouchard; Dolly, Dawn Caouette; Charlie, Roger Conant; Buffalo Bill, Glendon Smith; Pawnee Bill, Joel Graffman; Sitting Bull, Everette LaPorte; Wilson, Richard Nadeau; Tommy, David Kelley; Winnie, Judy Wise; Mac, Dale Webb; Little Jake, Arthur Crowell; Minnie, Priscilla LeBlanc; Jesse, Carolyn Henderson; Mrs. Adams, Pat Kelley; Mrs. Porter, Virginia Gilman.

Assistants were: Props manager, Annette Belliveau; make-up, Kathleen Sargent and Glenda-Lou Rowell; stage manager, Gerald Thibeault; prompter, Joan Neil.

The story is about Annie, shy and awkward, who comes to Wilson's hotel to sell quail to the proprietor. Wilson talks Annie into a shooting match with Frank Butler, sharp shooter for Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. Annie defeats Frank and in the process falls in love with him.

There was only one showing of the play, but it was a huge success.

Our Greatest Blessing . . .

I wonder why I have never noticed how lovely the town is at night. It is just a small mill town built along the banks of the river. Its lights reflect in the waters rushing to the dam where in a chilling mist they disappear with a roar, only to reappear frothing and tumbling over one another. Suddenly they seem to speak to me. "Count your blessings and be glad for them. Watch me and know how the Indians traveled unheard and unseen to the first settlement. Touch my waters and know the grave of many."

The lights of the town blink sleepily in the reflection and say softly, "We're here because of those settlers who were willing to suffer and be killed to protect their beliefs. We're here because they worked until their hands were raw and sore."

The moon rose slowly over the town silhouetting the hills in the distance and adding its beauty to the reflection.

The kindly old moon seemed to be challenging me tonight. "What is your greatest blessing? Our freedom of religion? Our type of government?"

Thoughtfully I sat there until I found an answer. Our greatest blessing is America and her people. These have all been blended into one precious shining amalgam, the American way of life. Our pulsating cities are shouting "Freedom"; the serene countryside echoing "Peace".

How many times have the first settlers trod these hills in search of game and fished these swiftly moving waters that flow between the hills? How many hardships have been endured by those early settlers who, because of their beliefs, their wants, and their needs came to America to build a new life.

Today history repeats itself. Immigrants come still, their wants the same, still rejoicing that now they may speak as they like, earn a living of their own choice and worship as they believe. They will have difficulties in earning a place in America, for our way of life is strange, but it is theirs for the learning.

How fortunate I am that I was born a citizen in this country. I may never know the tribulations those first settlers withstood to make America as I know it today, but certainly I can appreciate it and be grateful to them.

With each new development of this country there has been heartache and suffering. But a glorious victory of man, or man over nature has followed.

My town is typical of every town, city, and hamlet in the United States, unpretentious, humble, and stolid. It has been bought at a great price, the blood of democracy's heroes whose sons can be called away again from the forge or the saw, the counter or the office, to again take up the musket and tool of liberty for my town or to procure it for some other less fortunate people.

The town speaks to me, "America, a sparkling diamond in a world of darkness and despair, standing for enduring love and hope. Surely this is our greatest blessing."

Winter . . .

*A dramatic trumpet of earth and skies,
With all its fury the winter arrives.
Sweeping the earth of all her fall color,
Making nature reveal the dark, duller
Part of life, yet even mysterious.*

*Thus revealed, nature can but do her best
To prove that still our ancient earth is blest.
She beckons the wind that carries the snows,
Bids him to work. She's wise, indeed. She knows
That the earth must have a new winter coat.*

*With tumultuous fury the wind works
Piling the snow. Seems like some of it lurks
In back of buildings to jump out at you.
Sparkling designs of frost, icicles, too,
Are like glimmering, gleaming, clear crystal.*

*The countryside exchanged its coat of grays
On this, the most enchanting of all days.
The earth is covered by silvery white.
I'm sure angels shook stars with all their might
And covered the earth with shining stardust.*

Judy...

To my very best friend and next door neighbor. Well I guess we can say that we've finally made it eleven years for you and Twelve for me and the last 4 years living beside, across, or almost together almost like two sisters. Boy it really will seem funny not returning to school with you in the fall, but we will still keep in contact with each other, I hope if they don't keep you too busy at New England Tel. and Tel and me at Farmington. I guess neither one of us will ever forget all our little medium, and big sized talks together when we were lonesome or didn't have anything else to do. The many times we stayed at each others houses and sit up half the night, eating, reading, talking and laughing. All the times we went to the movies or had the car to go somewhere. My Vienna Roast, along with your help, started our 2 year off with a bang, afraid not any boys would show up and then there was 14 to us two little lonesome gals. Some fun! Too bad any girls showed up. Wherever you are when I get married, (if I do) HA-HA, I want you to be sure to come to my wedding. These last two weeks are really creeping up on us so let's try to make the most of it and finish it up with a bang, not miss a thing but we'll probably miss the big thing that we don't want to. This year wasn't quite as much fun as last but we did have a lot of fun if you know what I mean and I think you do. I can't back that special little name that I liked to but you have known all along who it was. Also that night we told each other about some secret admirers that were in the past. Now we laughed about that. Your prom night in Lewiston with Dick and what you said, how we laughed about that. Our Sunday ride that we took to a few places a short ways up north and our rider in between us. Those two trips we took to Athens to the dances last fall were quite it. Walking to go home and then go to Athens and then going to the dances one night with Shirley Cleveland and laughing until we cried. The night we got chased half way home and getting a ride. You had you never heard from him... Best of luck to ~~the~~ the nicest of girls and know you will succeed in everything you undertake. Visit me often. Your friend Joyce Quinn
